

Nonwovens for

EMBROIDERY BACKINGS

Introducing our range of embroidery backings

Ahlstrom wetlaid nonwovens are used as backings to stabilize and enhance the quality of your embroidery designs.

We are a leading global supplier of embroidery backings with over several decades of experience and manufacturing operations in North America and Europe.

Benefits:

- ✔ Our embroidery backings are made for any type of design, stitch count and fabric, and provide equal physical properties in all directions
- ✔ Only one sheet needed to do the job, with no need to overlap backings
- ✔ Due to consistent thickness and quality, our backings allow for precise thread placement and height, for more uniform designs
- ✔ Highly stable over time
- ✔ The uniformity of our backings ensures consistently equal tension during the embroidery process, leading to less thread breaks and higher machine efficiency
- ✔ Wide range of textures available: soft, rough, firm
- ✔ Customizable solutions available
